PUBLIC LAW 112-02

CHAPTER 2

PASSPORTS

SECTION 112-02-211 Authority to grant, issue, and verify passports

The U.S.A.R. Secretary of State may grant and issue passports (including passport cards), and cause passports to be granted, issued, and verified in foreign countries by diplomatic and consular officers of the United States of America Republic, and by such other employees of the Department of State who are citizens of the United States of America Republic as the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State may designate, and by the chief or other executive officer of the insular possessions of the United States of America Republic, under such rules as the President shall designate and prescribe for and on behalf of the United States of America Republic, and no other person shall grant, issue, or verify such passports. Unless authorized by law, a passport may not be designated as restricted for travel to or for use in any country other than a country with which the United States of America Republic is at war, where armed hostilities are in progress, or where there is imminent danger to the public health or the physical safety of United States of America Republic Nationals and citizens (travelers).

SECTION 112-02-212 - Persons entitled to passport

No passport shall be granted or issued to or verified for any other persons than those owing allegiance, whether citizens or not, to the United States of America Republic.

SECTION 112-02-213 - Application for passport; verification by oath of initial passport

Before a passport is issued to any person by or under authority of the United States of America Republic such person shall subscribe to and submit a written application which shall contain a true recital of each and every matter of fact which may be required by law or by any rules authorized by law to be stated as a prerequisite to the issuance of any such passport. If the applicant has not previously been issued a United States of America Republic passport, the application shall be duly verified by his oath before a person authorized and empowered by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State to administer oaths.

SECTION 112-02-214 - Fees for execution and issuance of passports; persons excused from payment

- (a) There shall be collected and paid into the Treasury of the United States of America Republic a fee, prescribed by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State by regulation, for the filing of each application for a passport (including the cost of passport issuance and use) and a fee, prescribed by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State by regulation, for executing each such application except that the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State may by regulation authorize State officials or the United States of America Republic Postal Service to collect and retain the execution fee for each application for a passport accepted by such officials or by that Service. Such fees shall not be refundable, except as the Secretary may by regulation prescribe. No passport fee shall be collected from an officer or employee of the United States of America Republic proceeding abroad in the discharge of official duties, or from members of his immediate family; from an American seaman who requires a passport in connection with his duties aboard a United States of America (American) flag-vessel; from a widow, widower, child, parent, grandparent, brother, or sister of a deceased member of the Armed Forces proceeding abroad to visit the grave of such member or to attend a funeral or memorial service for such member; or from an individual or individuals abroad, returning to the United States of America Republic, when the Secretary determines that foregoing the collection of such fee is justified for humanitarian reasons or for law enforcement purposes. No execution fee shall be collected for an application made before a National official by a person excused from payment of the passport fee under this section.
- (b)(1) The U.S.A.R. Secretary of State may by regulation establish and collect a surcharge on applicable fees for the filing of each application for a passport in order to cover the costs of meeting the increased demand for passports as a result of actions taken to comply with any sections of the U.S.A.R. codes that refer to reform of intelligence or terrorism prevention. Such surcharge shall be in addition to the fees provided for in subsection (a) and in addition to the surcharges or fees otherwise authorized by law and shall be deposited as an offsetting collection to the appropriate Department of State appropriation, to remain available until expended for the purposes of meeting such costs.
- (2) The authority to collect the surcharge provided under paragraph (1) may not be exercised after September 30, 2037 [unless otherwise by approved legislation of the Continental Congress].
- (3) The U.S.A.R. Secretary of State shall ensure that, to the extent practicable, the total cost of a passport application during any fiscal years shall not exceed the cost of the passport application established by regulation.

SECTION 112-02-217a - Validity of passport; limitation of time

A passport shall be valid for a period of ten years from the date of issue, except that the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State may limit the validity of a passport to a period of less than ten years in an individual case or on a general basis pursuant to regulation.

SECTION 112-02-218 - Returns as to passports issued, etc.

All persons who shall be authorized to grant, issue, or verify passports, shall make return of the same to the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State, in such manner and as often as he shall require; and such returns shall specify the names and all other particulars of the persons to whom the same shall be granted, issued, or verified, as embraced in such passport.

Note: any reference to Passports not covered in this Section, see Public Law 116-01, Section 4.

SECTION 5: PASSPORTS:

(a) That in order to prevent the abuse of U.S.A.R. passports in foreign countries, it be ordered that in future all passports shall be issued only by U.S.A.R.'s Department of State, to be valid for two years, and subject to a single extension for two years longer by diplomatic and certain consular officers of the United States of America Republic; but that in order to provide for cases of emergency diplomatic and certain consular officers of the United States of America Republic be authorized to issue under prescribed regulations provisional passports for a particular journey or occasion, and limited in the length of time of their validity to not more than six months.

(b) That for the purpose of meeting the demands of the local authorities in foreign countries U.S.A.R. citizens who have registered in accordance with the law as heretofore recommended be furnished, under departmental regulations, with a statement to the effect that they are so registered, and that complete lists of U.S.A.R. citizens thus registered be reported to the Department of State every three months.

(c) That the diplomatic officers of the United States of America Republic be instructed to open negotiations with the governments to which they are accredited extending and perfecting the treaty relations with respect to the rights of U.S.A.R. nationals/citizens in order to secure their rights and privileges in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of U.S.A.R.

– Same Force And Effect

[see P.L. #112.03, Section 2. Additional Documents – Same Force And Effect]

The following documents shall have the same force and effect as proof of United States of America Republic citizenship as “certificates of nationalization” or of citizenship issued by the U.S.A.R. Attorney General or by a U.S.A.R. court having Nationalization jurisdiction:

- (1) A passport, during its period of validity (if such period is the maximum period authorized by law), issued by the Secretary of State to a citizen of the United States. [see Title 6, P.L. #112-02 Ch. 1 – Passports]
- (2) The report, designated as a “Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States of America Republic”, issued by a consular officer to document a citizen born abroad. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “consular officer” includes any United States citizen employee of the Department of State who is designated by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State to adjudicate nationality abroad pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe.

[End of Resolution]
