United States of America Republic (U.S.A.R.)

U.S.A.R. ATTORNEY GENERAL, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

SECTION 2. ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS – SAME FORCE AND EFFECT

The following documents shall have the same force and effect as proof of United States of America Republic citizenship as “certificates of nationalization” or of citizenship issued by the U.S.A.R. Attorney General or by a U.S.A.R. court having Nationalization jurisdiction:

(1) A passport, during its period of validity (if such period is the maximum period authorized by law), issued by the Secretary of State to a citizen of the United States. [see Title 6, P.L. #112-02 Ch. 1 – Passports]

(2) The report, designated as a “Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States of America Republic”, issued by a consular officer to document a citizen born abroad. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “consular officer” includes any United States citizen employee of the Department of State who is designated by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State to adjudicate nationality abroad pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe.

SECTION 3. AUTHENTICATION/ CERTIFICATION

When a United States of America Republic National needs to have a Certificate of Nationalization “authenticated” or “certified” by the U.S. A.R. State Department for use by Foreign Governments/Embassies, the U.S.A.R. State Department can copy the document and certify it as a true copy.

“Authentication” is a term used by the U.S.A.R. Department of State and other Governments to describe what is referred to as Certified True Copies. When you require a Certificate of Nationalization to be authenticated, be sure to use the term "Certified True Copy."

If you have the original document to be certified, bring another form of photo identification, such as a U.S.A.R. drivers license or U.S.A.R. passport. An officer will review the documents and may certify the copy, if the officer can confirm your identity and status as a National or citizen.

All documentation coming from a requester, along with any documentation supplied by the U.S.A.R. Department of State, will be returned to the requester.

AUTHENTICATION FEATURES

(1) the term “authentication feature” means any hologram, watermark, certification, symbol, code, image, sequence of numbers or letters, or other feature that either individually or in combination with another feature is used by the issuing authority on an identification document, document-making implement, or means of identification to determine if the document is counterfeit, altered, or otherwise falsified;

ADDEMDUM

Refugee

The term “refugee” means

(A) any person who is outside any country of such person’s nationality or, in the case of a person having no nationality, is outside any country in which such person last habitually resided, and who is unable or unwilling to return to, and is unable or unwilling to avail himself or herself of the protection of, that country because of persecution or a well-founded fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion, or

(B) in such special circumstances as the President after appropriate consultation may specify, any person who is within the country of such person’s nationality or, in the case of a person having no nationality, within the country in which such person is habitually residing, and who is persecuted or who has a well-founded fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion.

The term “refugee” does not include any person who ordered, incited, assisted, or otherwise participated in the persecution of any person on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion. For purposes of determinations under this chapter, a person who has been forced to abort a pregnancy or to undergo involuntary sterilization, or who has been persecuted for failure or refusal to undergo such a procedure or for other resistance to a coercive population control program, shall be deemed to have been persecuted on account of political opinion, and a person who has a well-founded fear that he or she will be forced to undergo such a procedure or subject to persecution for such failure, refusal, or resistance shall be deemed to have a well-founded fear of persecution on account of political opinion.
